Bridge2

The bridge between Mt Faber and Telok Blangah Park is now open, as is the elevated path to Alexandra

a map of the trail system that includes the two bridges I crossed (the tall buildings in the corner are Gilman Condo, whose enble sale is causing a lot of problem):

HORTPARK (1.1km/15 mins)

A 23ha gardening and lifestyle hub nesting some 20 theme gardens in a park setting. It includes all things garden-related – recreational, educational, research and retail. It also serves as a park connector between Telok Blangah Hill Park and Kent Ridge Park. Open from 6am to 10pm daily.

FOREST WALK

(1.3km/20 mins)

- The 1.3km elevated steel walkway zig-zags through the secondary forest of Telok Blangah Hill Park and connects to Alexandra Arch.
- You may see monkeys along the way.

MARANG TRAIL

(800m/15 mins)

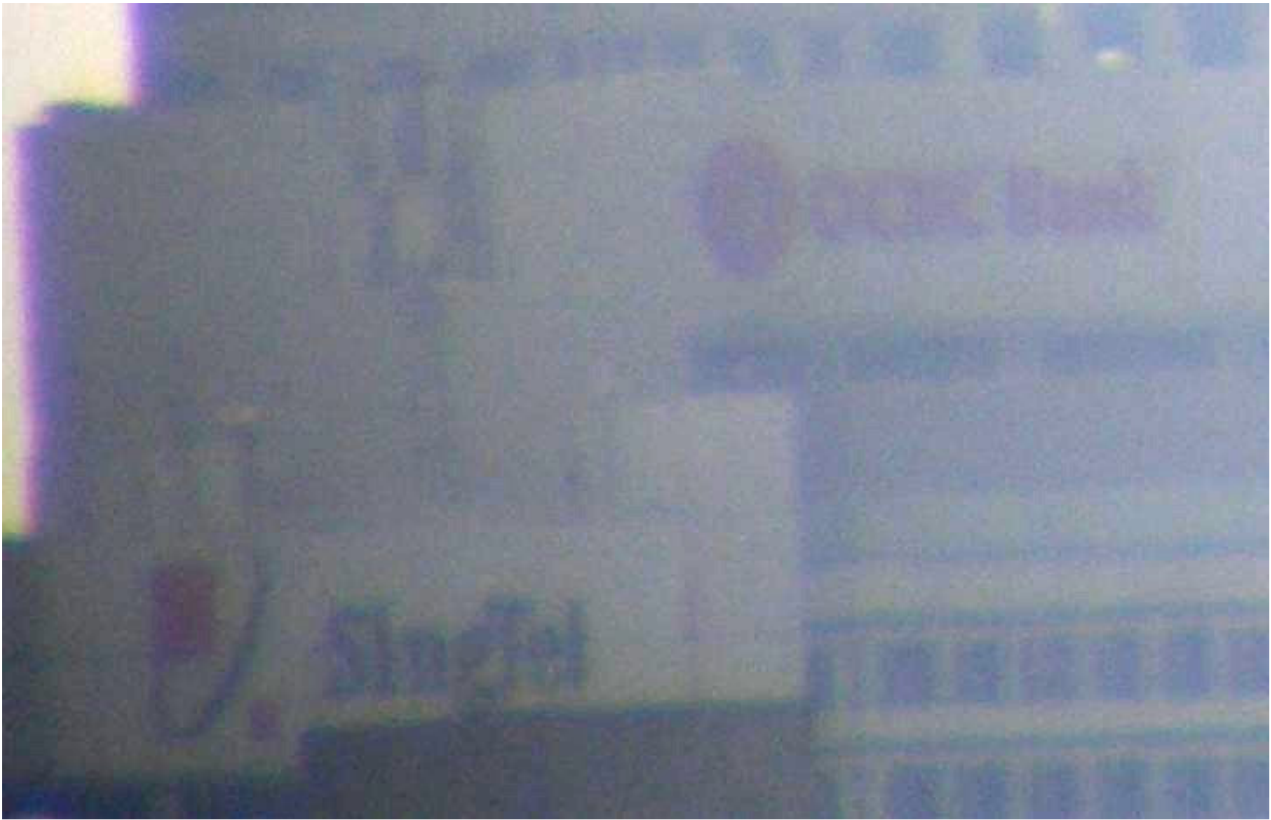

- Newly completed, this trail gets you to Mount Faber from Telok Blangah Road.
- Reaching 70m (equivalent to a 24-storey building), it has steps and shaded footpaths.
- To start, look for Exit D at HarbourFront MRT.
- This trail is not lit at night.

■ Pace yourself. Keep in mind that you may have to backtrack to your car or the MRT station, unless you are willing to take a bus or taxi back to your starting point.
